4. INVESTMENT RECOMMENDATION

Recommendations and actual reallocation are subject to Foundation approval. Contributions, grants, and investment activity may affect the actual date of investment allocation. Primary Advisors are welcome to make asset allocation recommendations by using more than one portfolio to reflect the expected timing and amount of their grant recommendation. If no choice is made, the assets will be invested in the Money Portfolio. Percentages listed below are for the initial account set-up. The Primary Advisor may recommend asset allocation changes at any time. All changes will be executed at the beginning of the next financial quarter.
