B. GIFT PROVISIONS

The Donor establishes this Permanent Fund Account(s) with the Foundation to further the mission of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). To this end, the Donor has (1) completed and executed this Application and Agreement, for approval and acceptance by a duly-authorized officer of the Foundation; and (2) irrevocably transferred the Gift to the Foundation.

The Foundation shall permanently hold, invest and reinvest the Gift as the Foundation shall determine within its sole and absolute discretion. The Foundation shall make Distributions to the Charitable Beneficiaries, or Contingent Beneficiaries, as applicable, subject to the Restriction(s). The Foundation may, in its sole discretion, commingle the assets of this Permanent Fund Account with the other endowment funds held by the Foundation and is compensated for investment advisory and/or other services. A reasonable fee may be charged by the Foundation for the management and administration of Permanent Fund Account(s), as determined by the Foundation from time to time. Unless otherwise noted in the Restriction(s), Distributions from this Permanent Fund Account(s) shall be made pursuant to then applicable Board policy and organizational procedures.

C. CHARITABLE BENEFICIARY PROVISIONS

Should a Restriction, as determined within the sole discretion of the Foundation (and without the approval of any court, person, organization or entity), become illegal, indefinite, impractical or impossible to perform or fulfill, the Foundation may amend such Restriction to have a purpose which parallels, to the extent possible, the original intent of the Donor, and may eliminate the Restriction if the original intent of the donor cannot be fulfilled. All decisions regarding the amendment or deletion of a Restriction shall be made in the judgment and sole discretion of the Foundation (and without the approval of any court, person, organization or entity) after consultation with appropriate governing bodies of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).

Should a Charitable Beneficiary cease to exist or cease to be an entity described in Sections 170(c), 170(b)(1)(A), 2055(a) and 2522(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (or any successor provision of federal law hereafter promulgated), or should a Charitable Beneficiary which was a member church of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) cease to be a member church of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), or should a Presbyterian-Related entity cease to be a Presbyterian-Related entity, then the Contingent Beneficiary designated in the Application and Agreement and the Summary of Terms for such Charitable Beneficiary shall become said Charitable Beneficiary for purposes of the Application and Agreement, and shall be entitled to receive such Charitable Beneficiary's Distribution, subject to the Restriction(s) designated for such Contingent Beneficiary in the Summary of Terms. If no Contingent Beneficiary is named for said Charitable Beneficiary, then said Distribution shall be administered by the Foundation for purposes which parallel, to the extent possible, the original intent of the Donor, in the judgment and sole discretion of the Foundation (and without the approval of any court, person, organization or entity) after consultation with appropriate governing bodies of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).

D. GIFT DATE DETERMINATION PROVISION

Gift Date for the Donor's(s') Gift to the Foundation shall be determined under the following rules:

1. Cash: If the Gift is cash, the Gift Date shall be the later of the date that the Completed Application and Agreement and/or the Gift amount in immediately payable funds is postmarked by the United States Postal Service, or is delivered to the same to an employee of the Foundation authorized to accept possession of the Application and Agreement and/or the Gift amount, or transfers funds to the Foundation. Post-dated checks will be cashed upon receipt.

2. Certificated Securities: If the Gift is certificated securities, the Gift Date shall be the later of the date that the Completed Application and Agreement or the certificate(s) and all required documentation, is postmarked by the United States Postal Service, or is delivered to an employee of the Foundation authorized to accept possession of the Application and Agreement, the certificates, and all required documentation.

3. Non-Certificated Securities: If the Gift is held in a brokerage or custodial account, the Gift Date is the later of the date that the Completed Application and Agreement is postmarked by the United States Postal Service, or is delivered to an employee of the Foundation authorized to accept possession of the Application and Agreement, or the date that the Gift is delivered into the Foundation's account.

4. Tangible and Intangible Personal Property: The Gift Date is the later of the date that the Completed Application and Agreement is postmarked by the United States Postal Service, or is delivered to an employee of the Foundation authorized to accept possession of the Application and Agreement, or the date that the property is delivered to and accepted by the Foundation. Life insurance and life income interests will be considered delivered when recorded on the books of the issuer of rights and ownership.

5. Real Estate: The Gift Date is the later of the date that the Completed Application and Agreement is postmarked by the United States Postal Service, or is delivered to an employee of the Foundation authorized to accept possession of the Application and Agreement or the deed to the property. Note: In those states that require the recording of a deed to complete the transfer of property, the Gift shall not be complete until the later of the date that the Completed Application and Agreement is postmarked by the United States Postal System, or is delivered to an employee of the Foundation authorized to accept possession of the Application and Agreement, or the date of the recording of the deed in a manner acceptable to the Foundation.

6. Multiple Asset Gifts: If any Donor gifts multiple assets as part of the original gift under this Application and Agreement, the Gift Date is the later of the date that the last asset or the Completed Application and Agreement is postmarked by the United States Postal Service, or is delivered to an employee of the Foundation authorized to accept possession of the gift plan documentation and the assets. If a Completed Application and Agreement is received without the Gift, or if a Gift is received without a Completed Application and Agreement, the Gift Date shall be the later of the United States Postal Service postmarked date or delivery of the last item received by the Foundation, as determined under the rules set forth above.

The term "Completed Application and Agreement" shall mean completed documentation sufficiently complete to permit acceptance of the gift by the Foundation. If the Application and Agreement is not complete, or requires clarification in such a manner that the Foundation may not accept the gift, the Application and Agreement shall be returned to the Donor(s) for completion or a written clarification shall be requested from the Donor. In such a case, the Gift Date shall be the later of the date that a revised Completed Application and Agreement or clarification is postmarked by the United States Postal Service, or received by the Foundation under the rules set forth above, or the date that the gift is postmarked by the United States Postal Service, or received under the rules set forth above.

If assets are delivered to the Foundation or transferred to a Foundation account (including an account with an outside vendor such as Merrill Lynch) prior to the fulfillment of the other requirements for establishing a Gift Date, the Foundation will hold the asset, as appropriate, in a Foundation or outside vendor account pending the receipt and acceptance of the other material items. Cash gifts will earn interest in accordance with Foundation policy. Any fluctuation in the market value of the non-cash assets while being held by the Foundation pending receipt of required material items is at the risk of the Donor(s). The Gift Date will be established on the date that all required items are accepted by the Foundation. Assets held over 30 business days without sufficient information to identify the Donor or gift plan, or with the material items necessary to complete the gift, will be referred to the Special Gifts Committee of the Foundation for further action which may include, but is not limited to, returning the asset(s) to the source.

Notwithstanding the above Gift Date determinations, if the Gift is received via the United States Postal Service, but is not postmarked, the Gift Date shall be the date of the Completed Application and Agreement if such Application and Agreement and the Gift are received by the Foundation within five days of the date on the Completed Application and Agreement. If the Completed Application and Agreement is received more than five days after the date on the Completed Application and Agreement the Gift Date shall be the date that the Completed Application and Agreement and the Gift are received by the Foundation.

The above rules shall not apply to deliveries by private courier. The Gift Date for deliveries by private courier is the later of the date that the Gift or the Completed Application and Agreement is received by the Foundation.

Exceptions to this Gift Date determination may be reviewed and acted upon by the Special Gifts Committee of the Foundation on a case-by-case basis.

E. OTHER PROVISIONS

The Donor and others have the option at any time hereafter to irrevocably transfer to the Foundation additional assets to be added to each Permanent Fund Account that are acceptable to the Foundation, and which shall be subject to the terms of this Agreement.

This Agreement shall be interpreted and construed according to, and governed by, the laws of the State of Indiana, excluding any such laws that might direct the application of the laws of another jurisdiction. The federal court located in Floyd County, Indiana or the state courts located in Clark County, Indiana shall have the sole jurisdiction to hear any dispute under this Agreement.
